Terry, the well known lawyer of this city, at $3 m at, received a reperter very courteously when he was seed if he had not held ticket No. 31,913, which drow the ond capital prize of $10,000 in the Louisiana State Lot-V Company's drawing, Class I, on September 9, and it said:—
"Yes, I held whole ticket No. 31,913 in trust for a client. It cost $2 at the office of M. A. Dauphin, 319 Broadway. I forwarded it through Adams Express for collection and receivek $10,000 in cash, without deduction. I would rathar not tell the name of the fortunate passessor of the money, since it would be a breach of confidence, and the principal object of collecting the ticket in my name would be defeated."

The reporter did not surger his investigation forther be defeated."

The reporter did not pursue his investigation further, as he was assured later in the day by the New York agent of the company, at 31th Broadway, that the Louisiann State Lottery Company nover desires to reveal the identity of any of its patrons without their authority.—New York World, September 27.
